

Internet Code of Conduct

Please review the following East Meadow High School policy regarding the Internet or multi-media use. Any wrongdoing by students regarding this policy could result in school discipline and or loss of school privileges.

Examples of such conduct include, but are not limited to:

- Cyberbullying-“Cyberbullying is the use of electronic information and communication devices such as e-mail, instant messaging, mobile/camera phones, and defamatory websites to bully or otherwise harass an individual or group through personal attacks or other means.”
- Threatening, hazing or harassing students or school personnel over the internet.
- Using social networking websites such as blogs, Myspace, Facebook, YouTube, chat rooms, video or links to inappropriate multimedia material to convey threats, derogatory comments, inappropriate pictures or inappropriate written material about students or school personnel.

Please note that such conduct performed outside of school will be addressed if and when that conduct disrupts the school day and endangers the safety, morals, health or welfare of others.
